

Total marks — 25 marks

Attempt ALL questions

1. In a DNA molecule, phosphate groups are found at
 - A 3' ends and are joined to bases
 - B 3' ends and are joined to deoxyribose sugar
 - C 5' ends and are joined to bases
 - D 5' ends and are joined to deoxyribose sugar.