

6. Which of the following is a description of pharmacogenetics?
- A Comparing sequence data using computers and statistical analysis.
 - B Studying the evolutionary relatedness among groups of organisms.
 - C Using an individual's genome sequence to select the most effective drugs.
 - D Studying the mutation rate in sequences over many generations.