

2. The difference in the size of sodium and chlorine atoms is mainly due to the difference in the
- A mass of each atom
 - B number of electrons
 - C number of neutrons
 - D number of protons.