

3. Solid carbon dioxide is known as 'dry ice'. It changes directly to a gas when it is heated.

The strongest bonds broken in this process are

- A polar covalent bonds
- B London dispersion forces
- C non-polar covalent bonds
- D permanent dipole-permanent dipole interactions.