

4. Which of the following statements is correct?
- A Elements with high electronegativities tend to be reduced
 - B Elements with high electronegativities tend to act as reducing agents
 - C Elements with low electronegativities tend to gain electrons
 - D Elements with low electronegativities tend to act as oxidising agents