

2. Elements which are strong reducing agents

- A undergo reduction reactions
- B are found on the right-hand side of the periodic table
- C have low electronegativity values
- D tend to form ions by gaining electrons.